

Proactive release of the September 2023 advice to Ministers

This Document Schedule outlines documents sent to the Minister and Associate Minister of Transport and their release status.

The following sections of the Official Information Act 1982 apply to the withheld information:

- Section 6(c) to prevent prejudice to the maintenance of the law, including the prevention, investigation, and detection of offences, and the right to a fair trial.
- Section 9(2)(a) to protect the privacy of natural persons, including Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency staff, through the redaction of their mobile and DDI numbers.
- Section 9(2)(b)(ii) to protect the commercial position of the person who supplied the information or who is the subject of the information.
- Section 9(2)(ba)(i) to protect information which is subject to an obligation of confidence or which any person has been or could be compelled to provide under the authority of any enactment, where the making available of the information would be likely to prejudice the supply of similar information, or information from the same source, and it is in the public interest that such information should continue to be supplied.
- Section 9(2)(f)(iv) to maintain the constitutional conventions for the time being which protect the confidentiality of advice tendered by Ministers of the Crown and officials.
- Section 9(2)(g)(i) to maintain the effective conduct of public affairs through the free and frank expression of opinions by or between or to Ministers of the Crown or members of an organisation or officers and employees of any public service agency or organisation in the course of their duty.
- Section 9(2)(j) to enable Waka Kotahi to carry out negotiations without prejudice or disadvantage.
