Hi Adam

I just remembered that I mentioned to you that my team is working on value capture and that I would put you in touch with the right person. s9(2)(a) is leading the work here and he is keen to catch up with you to share some of our thinking and see what the council is doing.

If you would like me to set something up, let me know what days and times work for you and whether there are any other people from Council who should attend.

Best regards
