Yes happy to discuss. In practice we won't likely have separate work streams for value capture and other funding streams. We will just consider what options are available to us and make recommendations.

At this stage, as you probably know, the funding tools available to us are pretty limited.

Cheers
Adam

Thanks for organising this Adam.

I'm also keen to have a chat with you about what Council is doing around funding sources for LGWM. This is for the advice that the Ministry and TSY is providing to the Minister at the end of the month.

Best regards
