10. On 21 October 2016, we briefed you about our proposal for a mobility as a service (MaaS) marketplace concept (BRI-0887 refers, copy attached). In summary, we are proposing to work with the US Company, Machine Zone and Auckland Transport to develop and pilot an online platform that will allow users to make informed multi-model decisions in real-time and pay for mobility services in a seamless manner.

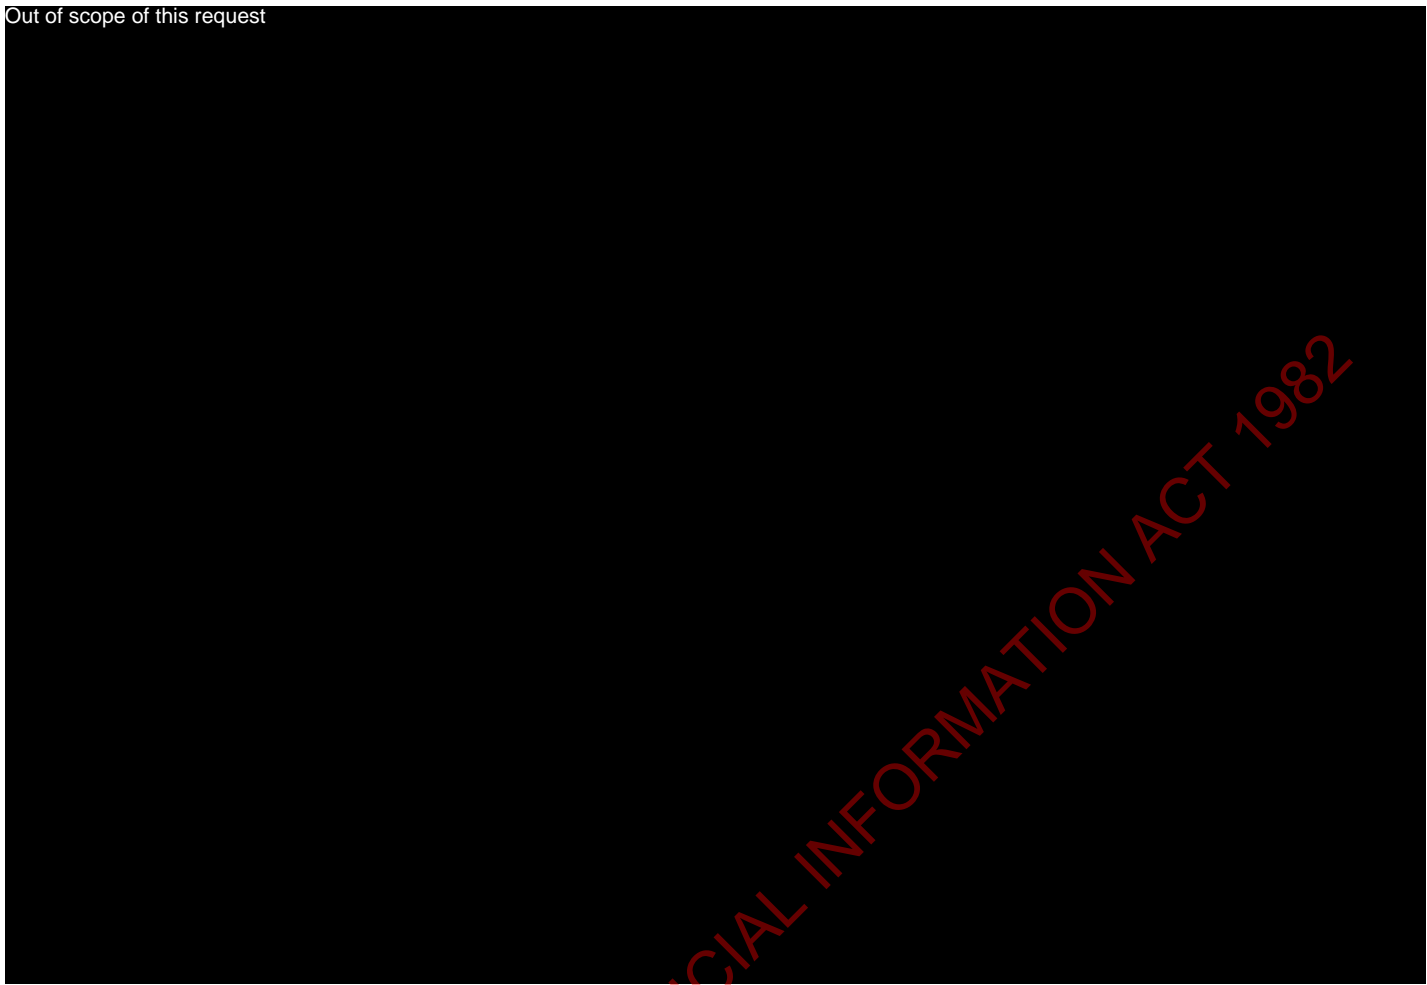

11. In November 2016, Martin McMullan, Connected Journeys Director, New Zealand Transport Agency (the Agency) met with digital mobility providers in San Francisco to validate the Agency's think [redacted] etplace concept. During this visit, Martin McMullan met with [redacted] Machine Zone, [redacted]
