9. In October 2016, we briefed you about our proposal for a Mobility as a Service (MaaS) marketplace concept (BRI-0887 refers, copy attached). In summary, we are proposing to work with Auckland Transport to develop and pilot an online platform that will allow users to make informed multi-mode decisions in real-time and pay for mobility services in a seamless manner.

10. In November 2016, Martin McMullan, Connected Journeys Director, New Zealand Transport Agency (NZTA) met with digital mobility providers in San Francisco to validate the NZTA's thin Machine Zone, [redacted]
