ADDENDUM for HPMV Higher Mass Permits

WORLD CUP TRIATHLON EVENT, NAPIER

SH50 CLOSURE BETWEEN COOTE ROAD AND BRIDGE STREET - HPMV DETOUR ROUTE Saturday 24th – Sunday 25th February 2024

Due to the Triathlon World Cup event in Napier, there will be road closures requiring the use of a HPMV detour route on Saturday 24th February between 12pm and 7pm and Sunday 25th February between 7am and 2pm.

SH50 will be closed in both directions between Coote Road and Bridge Street with HPMV traffic being detoured via local authority roads. The northbound detour route for HPMV's is as follows and is shown on the map below. The southbound detour is the reverse:

- Hyderabad Road between SH50 and Thackeray Street
- Thackeray Street between Hyderabad Road and Tennyson Street
- Tennyson Street between Thackeray Street and Marine Parade and
- Marine Parade between Tennyson Street and Coote Road

Note: The event times are subject to change due to inclement weather, incidents, etc but this addendum is valid for the duration of the event.

Only this approved detour route may be used unless other routes are already included on your HPMV permit.

If you have any queries regarding this closure, please contact Andre Taylor or Martin Colditz at Waka Kotahi NZTA. (andre.taylor@nzta.govt.nz or martin.colditz@nzta.govt.nz)
