Key topics

The project team hosted a community celebration/info session for the recently opened SH18 shared path. It was an opportunity for the team to talk about the shared path and to give an update on the work still to be completed. A number of project boards were on display.

Notification of the event

A flyer was delivered to the businesses in Rosedale and residents in the Unsworth Heights area. The flyer was emailed to the project and e-news databases. A social media post was also shared on the Waka Kotahi Auckland facebook page. Local groups including Upper Harbour Local Board and Bike Auckland also shared information on the celebration/info session via their channels.

Feedback

Key questions raised:

- When is the SH1 shared path opening?
- How do I get from SH18 onto the shared path near Constellation Station?
- Why is it taking so long to finish?
- When are the motorway connections opening?
- Can I get onto the SH18-SH1 link from Paul Matthews Road?
- What will happen to 80 Paul Matthews Road? Is it going to be sold?
- Do you always have events like this?
- When are there going to be cycle lanes on Constellation Drive and Oteha Valley Road?
