

People make mistakes. But they shouldn't have to die for them.

The Safe Network Programme is a collaborative, prioritised programme of proven safety interventions on high risk routes across New Zealand. We all make mistakes, but there are changes we can make to our roads so simple mistakes don't cost lives.