Circulated by David Silvester, National Manager Planning

Date 3 February 2014

Purpose

To notify approved organisations and other stakeholders of changes to the Transport Planning Activity Class: Work category 001: Regional land transport planning management – guidance.

Background

The Land Transport Management Act 2003 was amended in June 2013 and made changes associated with the development and management of Regional Land Transport Plans (RLTP's).

From 1 July 2013, the NZTA has begun the transition to a Business Case Approach for transport planning and activity development. It is expected that all transport planning activities and significant new investment proposals in the 2015-18 NLTP will use the Business Case Approach for investment from the transport planning activity class (General circular - Planning 13/05 <http://www.nzta.govt.nz/resources/general-circulars/docs/13-05.pdf>).

The change to the Transport Planning Activity Class: Work Category 001 – Regional Land Transport Management has been made to reflect and bring into line with the above.

Changes to the Transport Planning Activity Class

Changes to this Work Category definition will take effect immediately.
