

SH2 BOP Northern Corridor Safe System Project

*Collective Risk: is a measure of the total number of fatal and serious injury crashes per kilometre over a section of road. It highlights which roads have a high number of fatal and serious crashes on them and where infrastructure improvements are most likely to be cost effective, and where the greatest road safety gains can be made.

