Kia ora koutou

Thank you for the opportunity to come speak to you today about the Streets for People project decision. Here's the presentation for your information. Remember the locations on slide 5 are still confidential. We can say that Auckland is part of our cohort, but we're waiting to establish our relationship with these communities before we go public with them.

Also thank you for the thought provoking questions. We're planning a workshop next week to discuss our 'Catalyst' workstream, which is being put together to ensure stakeholders indicate a greater understanding and uptake of adaptive practices, and systems are changing to support their use. So let's keep this conversation going.

Regards
