Registering a vehicle

Note: Registration refers to paying a one-off fee to add a vehicle's details to the Motor Vehicle Register (MVR). When the vehicle is added to the register, Waka Kotahi issues number plates for it. This only happens once for most vehicles, when they've arrived in New Zealand and are first going to be used on the road.

Product / Service	Old fee (GST incl.)	New fee (GST incl.)	Change $	Change %
-------------------	---------------------	---------------------	-----------	----------

* This fee covers the cost to Waka Kotahi of maintaining the integrity of VIN data in the motor vehicle register. It will be collected from the first registered person of all vehicles new to New Zealand.

This fee covers the cost to Waka Kotahi to assess the chassis rating of a vehicle. It will only be collected for heavy vehicles with a gross vehicle mass over 3500kg.

Renewal of motor vehicle licence (rego) (MR1/MR1B)

Note: Licensing (rego) is the regular fee you pay for using your vehicle on the road, which gives you the small label on the bottom left-hand side of your windscreen.

Motor vehicle licence fees (rego) include:

- a licence fee
- an ACC levy
- a transport service licence fee (if the vehicle is used under a TSL)
- an administration fee. The change below relates to the administration fee.
