

Statutory declaration in respect of application for alcohol interlock subsidy

Use this form to make a statutory declaration that you're eligible for a subsidy for your alcohol interlock sentence.

Making a statutory declaration

A statutory declaration is a written statement declaring something to be true in the presence of an authorised witness. It is an offence to make a statement which is false for any purpose under the Land Transport Act 1998.

Signing the declaration

This statutory declaration must be signed and dated in front of an authorised witness (see below).

Who can be an authorised witness for a statutory declaration?

A declaration made in New Zealand must be made before:

- a) a person enrolled as a barrister and solicitor of the High Court; or
- b) a Justice of the Peace; or
- c) a notary public; or
- d) the Registrar or a Deputy Registrar of the Supreme Court; or
- e) the Registrar or a Deputy Registrar of the Court of Appeal; or
- f) a Registrar or a Deputy Registrar of the High Court of a District Council; or
- g) some other person authorised by law to administer an oath; or
- h) a member of Parliament; or
- i) a person who -
  - is a fellow of the body (incorporated under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908) that, immediately before the commencement of the Oaths and Declarations Amendment Act 2001, was called the New Zealand Institute of Legal Executives; and
  - is acting in the employment of the holder of a practising certificate as a barrister and solicitor of the High Court; or
- j) an employee of Public Trust constituted under the Public Trust Act 2001, authorised for that purpose (by name, or as the holder for the time being of a specified office or title) by the Minister of Justice by notice in the Gazette; or
- k) an officer in the service of the Crown, or of a local authority within the meaning of the Local Government Act 2002, authorised for that purpose (by name, or as the holder for the time being of a specified office or title) by the Minister of Justice by notice in the Gazette.

What should I do after the declaration has been witnessed?

If you haven't got your alcohol interlock driver licence yet, you'll need to make an application at a driver licensing agent. Go to www.nzta.govt.nz/agent to find an agent in your area.

Take your statutory declaration with you, along with all the requirements listed on the Application for alcohol interlock or zero alcohol licence form (DL8). Go to www.nzta.govt.nz/form-DL8 to download the form.

If you've already got your alcohol interlock driver licence, you'll need to submit your statutory declaration straight to Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency. You can go to www.nzta.govt.nz/AID-subsidy and upload a high-quality copy, or you can email it to AID@nzta.govt.nz. Please include your name, driver licence number, contact phone number and the name of your AID provider. Or if you prefer, you can post the information and statutory declaration to:

Alcohol Interlock Statutory Declarations Waka Kotahi Private Bag 11777 Palmerston North 4442

You must upload, email or send the form to us within 10 days of the date it was signed.

More information

For more information about proving your eligibility and the alcohol interlock process, go to www.nzta.govt.nz/alcohol-interlock-programme or read Alcohol interlocks (Factsheet 58).
